

Quizmas True or False

FIGHT FOR EVERY HEARTBEAT

bhf.org.uk

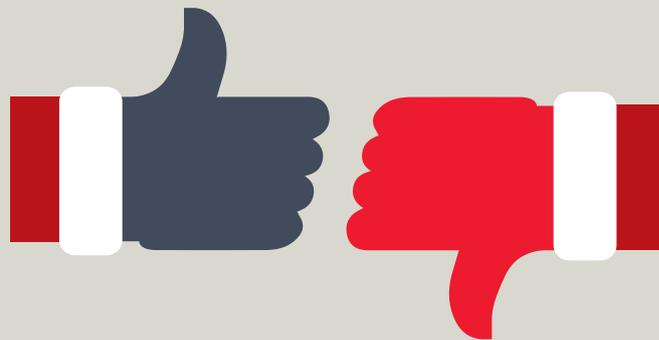

Directions

Raise money by having a fun 'True or False' round for a spot prize.

Cut-out around the card and hand one to each participant (you can charge them to enter. Suggested donation of £1). Everyone stands up and the quiz master reads out True or false questions attached. Participants hold up the 'True' or 'False' card depending on what they think the answer is. Players who answer incorrectly must sit down, this is continued until there is a single prize winner.

Quizmas

True or False

True or False questions to be used as a fundraiser

- True or False:
For the first hour of its life, a baby giraffe uses its head and long neck as a “fifth leg” to stop it falling over as it learns to control its gangly limbs.
Answer: False
- True or False:
In the Solomon Islands, ‘Only Fools and Horses’ was so popular when it was first shown on TV there in 1991, that over 35% of all boys born in 1992 were called Rodney, Derek, Del or Delboy.
Answer: False
- True or False:
Martin Bashir, famous (amongst other things) for his interviews of Princess Diana and Michael Jackson, released a reggae album in 2010 called ‘Bass Lion’.
Answer: True
- True or False:
In 2009, Stephen Hawking threw a party at Cambridge University which nobody went to. This is because he didn’t announce the details until after the date as the party was for time travellers.
Answer: True
- True or False:
In his 2009 autobiography, tennis legend Andre Agassi revealed that he did not eat any fruit or vegetables for over 9 months in 1986.
Answer: False
- True or False:
The girlfriend of the founder of match.com left him for a man she met on match.com.
Answer: True
- True or False:
The Polish Beer Lovers Party won 16 seats in the Polish Parliament in 1991 elections, but soon split into two factions, known as “Large Beer” and “Small Beer”.
Answer: True
- True or False:
The first draft of the Companies Act 2006, in an attempt to stay on top of modern technology, contained a clause requiring all Companies in the UK to have a fax number to be used for official communications from Companies House.
Answer: False
- True or False:
The national anthem of Liechtenstein is to the tune of the ‘Fawlty Towers’ theme. The anthem came first and was chosen as the theme tune to the show by John Cleese, who had recently heard it during a football match.
Answer: False
- True or False:
It was a criminal offence in England and Wales to “be an incorrigible rogue” until the crime was removed from the statute book in 2013.
Answer: True
- True or False:
In 1989, David Hasselhoff released the single ‘Pingu Dance’ in Switzerland, a rap song based on the Pingu TV show and featuring a number of samples of Pinguish.
Answer: True
- True or False:
Dave Peacock, of Chas and Dave, was originally offered the part of Bill Sykes in the film version of ‘Oliver!’, but turned it down to compete in the 1968 Olympics at Discus, where he just missed bronze to Czechoslovakia’s Ludvik Danek.
Answer: False