

Session 1

How the heart works

The heart is a muscle that pumps blood around the body. It is about the size of your fist and is in the middle of your chest and tilted slightly to the left.

