

Session 7

Controlling blood pressure

Blood pressure is the pressure of blood in the arteries. You need this pressure to keep your blood flowing.

Systolic pressure

This is the top reading, which occurs when the beat or contraction of the heart forces the blood around the body.

Diastolic pressure

This is the bottom reading, which occurs when the heart is resting.